

How can I know if I have received the Holy Ghost?

Acts 10:44-47

Peter and the Jews that were with him could tell that these people had received the Holy Ghost for they heard them _____ with _____.

Does everyone speak with tongues when they receive the Holy Ghost?

Acts 2:1-4

They began to speak with _____ as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak.

Acts 8:14-18

Simon was unfamiliar with the things of God. Yet even he was able to tell some how when people received the Holy Ghost. There was clearly a recognizable sign.

Acts 10:46

They heard them speak with _____ and _____ God.

Acts 19:1-6

They spoke with _____ and _____.

Speaking with _____ is noted consistently when people received the Holy Ghost in the Bible.

The Gospel easy as 1-2-3!

Holy Ghost

We saw in I Corinthians what the gospel is. And we learned that we must obey the gospel just as Peter instructed in Acts 2:38.

The gospel is:	Acts 2:38 says to:
1. _____	1. _____
2. _____	2. _____
3. _____	3. _____

It's as easy as 1-2-3.

In this lesson we will look more closely at receiving the Holy Ghost.

What is the Holy Ghost?

Holy Ghost and Holy Spirit mean exactly the same thing.

John 4:24

God is a _____. What spirit? The _____ Spirit. The Holy Ghost is God himself.

Who is the Father?

Matthew 1:18-21; Luke 1:30-35

The mother of the man, Jesus Christ, was _____. The father of the man, Jesus Christ, was the _____.

Jesus spoke of his Father frequently. That Father is the Holy Ghost – God himself.

What other terms refer to the Holy Ghost?

There are many. Quite a few are mentioned in this one chapter: Romans 8:9-11 verse 9 – the _____; the spirit of _____; the spirit of _____ verse 10 – _____ (“if _____ be in you”); the _____ verse 11 – spirit of him that _____ up Jesus from the dead; his _____

Why should I receive the Holy Ghost?

Receiving the Holy Ghost is sometimes called being baptized with the Holy Ghost or being filled with the Spirit.

John 7:38-39

When you receive the Holy Ghost, _____ waters will flow from the deepest part of you.

Acts 1:4-8

You shall receive _____ when you are baptized with the Holy Ghost.

John 14:26

The Holy Ghost will be a _____ for you and will _____ you.